

Author Bios

2 Sentence Bio: Anna Anderson is the author of the based-on-fact historical novel “The Scoundrel and The Songstress”.

Short Bio: Anna Anderson is the author of the based-on-fact historical novel “The Scoundrel and The Songstress”. She is passionate about the stories within our families, both those handed down through the generations and those that were hidden.

The idea for The Scoundrel and The Songstress came from a throwaway question from her own mother, who wanted to find information about an unknown grandfather.

Medium Bio: Anna Anderson is the author of the based-on-fact historical novel “The Scoundrel and The Songstress”. She is passionate about the stories within our families, both those handed down through the generations and those that were hidden.

The idea for The Scoundrel and The Songstress came from a throwaway question from her mother, who wanted to find information about an unknown grandfather.

Anna is interested about New Zealand history and the stories of our forebears, in particular the daily minutae of their lives and how they differ from today.

This is her first novel. The bare bones were written for NaNoWriMo 2015, and Anna spent the following year crafting the final story.

Long Bio/Speaker Introduction: Anna Anderson is the author of the based-on-fact historical novel “The Scoundrel and The Songstress”. She is passionate about the stories within our families, both those handed down through the generations and those that were hidden.

The idea for The Scoundrel and The Songstress came from a throwaway question from her mother, who wanted to find information about an unknown grandfather.

Anna is interested about New Zealand history and the stories of our forebears, in particular the daily minutae of their lives and how they differ from today. She is a voracious reader but with no formal training in writing, she relied on help from fellow Book Club members and readers on-line to finish the narrative.

This is her first novel. The bare bones were written for NaNoWriMo 2015, and Anna spent the following year crafting the final story.

A busy mother of four, when she is not writing Anna can be found on the small family 20 acres milking “Willow” the cow, making cheese, quilting and knitting.